WOMEN STUDENTS SELL TICKETS TODAY FOR RECREATION EVENING

"Tickets definitely will go on sale today for the AWS co-educational recreation evening which will be held tonight from 6 to 8 o'clock on the turf behind the Men's gym, announced Leah Keller, ticket chairman.

According to Miss Keller, the tickets were to go on sale yesterday in the Library arch, but the sale of bids to other affairs used all available booths. "Members of AWS will be on hand today in the Library arch," she added, "so that students can get tickets before tonight."

The price of the admission will be 30 cents which includes food, swimming and the bonfire-sing after swimming. According to Co-chairmen Barbara Curry and Charlotte Harder, everyone is invited. First on the program will be the swimming which will begin at 6 o'clock in the Men's pool. This will be followed by the bonfire and community sing at 8. Hot dogs and coke will be served free to ticket holders.

Only a limited number of tickets will be sold, according to Miss Keller. If, however, there are any tickets left by the time the activities start, they will be on sale behind the Men's gym, where the bonfire is to be held.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(UP)—Frank Stranahan and George Hamer, two members of the victorious U. S. Walker Cup Golf team, and non-playing Captain Francis Ouimet arrived home today by plane from London.

Accompanying the trio was Isaac B. Granger, an executive of the Walker Cup committee. The players said they would leave for their homes immediately for some rest. The remainder of the U. SCA Members To Voice Military Conscription Views

Letters will be written to congressmen, newspapers, magazines, and educators on the subject of military conscription by the committee on universal training tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, according to Chairman Victor McLane of the committee which is being sponsored by the Student Christian association. The meeting will be held at the Student Center of the Congregational church.

This committee was started by the SCA and is planning to hold a panel discussion on the issue which is now before Congress, next Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. The group plans to hold a poll, and also will attempt to present the issue objectively and give the proposal an honest evaluation. Conscription is highly favored by the War department, veterans groups, and probably will be a major issue in the next election.

McLane invites interested students to come to the meeting tomorrow evening and the panel discussion next Tuesday morning.

The committee plans to have two outside speakers and two faculty members to participate on the panel.

Vet Affairs

J. D. Murchison, field representative for the State of California Department of Veterans' Affairs, Division of Educational Assistance, will visit San Jose State college Wednesday, June 4, from 9 a.m. until 12 for the purpose of interviewing students who may desire information regarding the California Veterans' Educational Institute, according to a report from the Dean of Men's office.

Mr. Murchison particularly wishes to see the following students: George K. Schwind, James W. Burroughs, George H. Egan, Roy H. Wardrip.

More detailed information concerning the coming interviews may be had by inquiring at the Dean of Men's office.

Alumni Offer Scholarships

Students with teacher-training programs whose parents are alumni of San Jose State college are eligible for a $100 scholarship being offered by the Alumni Association.

The scholarship is to be awarded in the student's junior year on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and need. To qualify, the student must have teaching as an objective and at least one parent who is a San Jose State alumnus.

"The Alumni association hopes to foster an increased interest in education as a career, by offering this scholarship," reports Miss Doris Robinson, director of the Placement office and secretary-treasurer for the association.

Students who feel they may qualify for the scholarship should see Miss Robinson in the Placement office immediately. A committee appointed by the Alumni association will consider candidates and make the award.

COUNCIL HEARS STUDENT COURT REFUSE CHARGES AGAINST ITSELF

At its last meeting of the school year, the 1946-47 Student Council heard the Student Court refuse the charges brought against the court May 26. The Student Court threw out the case on the grounds that the evidence presented did not warrant a trial, and that an official body of the student government cannot try itself.

The report presented by the court further declared that it was in complete charge of the ASB elections May 16 and 19, and a representative of the court was present for a portion of the council meeting May 19.

Answering charge 33, the report stated that the ASB constitution does not provide that such an organization as the Student Court

18 Candidates In Election Tomorrow

With all candidates stressing increased student participation in their acceptance speeches, 18 aspirants will seek election to various ASB offices tomorrow. Polls will open at 8 a.m.

The ballot will also include a proposed amendment providing for an elected prosecuting attorney, who would prosecute all cases before the Student Court.

Yell leader: Hubert Thurnber, and Glenn Stewart.

Miss Capp was the only nominee for senior justice. The vacancies for these offices included one man, and one woman justice.

Key Club Elects Thirteen Seniors

Students in the top seven percent scholastic bracket in the senior class were recently elected into the Key club, a scholarship organization sponsored by faculty members of Phi Beta Kappa.

New Radio Receiver

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—(UP)—An Australian mechanic tonight claimed to have invented a radical new receiver capable of picking up frequency modulation and other short-range broadcasts at the phenomenal range of 6,000 miles.

Frank Graham, 38-year-old Melbourne, Australia technician, said his radio's almost-unbelievable performance was due to several new principles of receiver design. He claimed he had received FM (Frequency Modulation) and police shortwave broadcasts in Australia that had never been heard before outside the United States.

FM broadcasts, because of their ultra-high frequencies, have been limited to a range of about 50 miles. Radio technicians here said that if Graham's claims were true, his receiver would conquer the biggest problem holding back the development of FM.

Reports Due

Treasurer Jim Gualtieri requests that all organizations submit their budget reports by Thursday.

President Marty Taylor asks that he have all reports in his office by Monday.

have an adviser. At the same time, the court submitted Dr. Leo P. Kibby, of the Social Science department, as honorary adviser.

President Marty Taylor recommended that, since the court adequately answered to the charges, the case be dropped.

The council also voted that Article 1, section 3, clause 2 be made to read:

"Election shall be by Australian ballot. A primary election shall be held to determine the three top candidates. A subsequent runoff shall be held, in which the winning candidate(s) must secure a plurality of the votes cast."

The Student Council for 1947-48 will hold its first meeting Monday night, at 6:45, in the Student Union.

CREDENTIAL FORMS NEEDED

All affidavits for teaching credentials have not been filled out according to the Registrar's office. These additional forms are necessary if graduation candidates expect to receive teaching credentials in June, August or September.

Following is the list of those who should come in:

Truman OKs UMT

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(UP)—The White House said today that President Truman probably will submit to Congress later this week the recommendations of his special advisory commission for a universal military training program.

Press secretary Charles G. Ross declined comment on whether Mr. Truman endorses the commission's specific recommendations, but said it was "obvious" that he favors them in principle.

He said it has not been decided whether the report would be submitted in a special message or by a covering letter.

Lycurgus Has Near-Record Sale

A near-record sale marked the spring appearance of Lycurgus yesterday.

Over 1700 magazines were sold, of the 2000 printed. The remainder will go on sale today in the Library arch, in front of Morris Dailey auditorium, and in the Commerce wing. Price is 25 cents per copy.

Student opinion of the magazine is favorable, as a whole.

They generally agree that the new three-column makeup improves its appearance, and the new Sports section is better than average.

Chief fault is with the body type. Students seem to feel that it is difficult to read.

Other criticism deals with the Humor section, which, some readers think, isn't humorous.

Over 64 students, including the staff, have helped in the preparation of the spring edition. Faculty advisers are: Dr. Raymond Barry, Dr. James Wood, Dwight Bentel, William Gould and Milton Lanyon.

'Over 21' Starts Thursday Night

"Over Twenty-One," a zany, laugh-packed three-act comedy, opens its five-night run Thursday evening at 8:15 in the college Little Theater.

The story, by Ruth Gordon, deals with the misadventures of Max Warton, an ex-newspaper publisher, and his struggles to get through officer candidate school. Max, who is well over 30, finds to his dismay, that people "over twenty-one" just don't absorb knowledge quickly. Paula, his wife, finds that living in cramped, unattractive motels is uncomfortable and unpleasant, but always interesting and amusing.

All this combines to make a hilarious comedy in which witty dialogue and fast action set the pace for lots of laughs.

Leading the cast in the parts of Max and his wife are Don Holaday and Elda Beth Payne. In support of them are Roxana Hill-dreth, John Calderwood, Gordon Stewart, Joe Johnson, Dorothy Williams, Clark Kirkpatrick, Shirley Mandel and Barbara Vaccaro.

Tickets for all nights' performances still are available in the Speech office. The play will run Thursday through Monday, including a Sunday evening's show. Tickets are 60 cents for students and 90 cents general admission.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

Well gang, here's the scoop! You veterans who have been getting huffy because the Veterans' Administration won't pay your student body fees can relax now. One way or another, it looks like an arrangement will be reached, and it will be the VA and not the individuals which will make up the financial difference.

The VA will pay any and all required fees, but the fee MUST be required. If a fee is optional, the VA won't pay. It's that simple. Already at the University of California the Board of Regents has taken action. Students attending Cal next year will be required to buy student body cards.

It is also possible for San Jose State college, and any other State college to require any fees that the local school authorities may deem necessary.

"A committee is meeting now in Sacramento to find a solution," states Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, "and it is my guess that they will make student body fees a requirement."

As yet the VA in San Francisco, and local VA Coordinator E. W. Clements have received no official notification of whether or not the VA will pay student body cards. One thing that they are sure of though, is that if the fee is required of all students veterans' fees will be paid for by the VA, and if not required of all, VA will not foot the bill.

So calm down fellows and let's wait until we have something OFFICIAL before we get too steamed up.

VET'S BULL SESSION

By HAL SNOOK

(This is the first of a series of two articles on Foreign Education.)

Under the provisions of Public Law 346 it is possible for veterans to attend foreign educational institutions which have been approved by the Veterans' Administration. The Veterans' Administration approves educational institutions in foreign countries and not individual students.

Therefore, a veteran desiring to enroll in a foreign college under this act should select the institution which he wishes to attend and then request information from the Veterans' Administration, Washington 25, D. C., as to whether it is an approved institution. Or he may request a list of approved institutions in the country in which he contemplates studying.

ACCEPTANCE CHECK

The veteran will make, on his own initiative, all prior arrangements with the foreign educational institution and should assure himself that it will accept him as a student under the provisions of the act, in the particular course of his choice.

TRAVEL PERMITS

The veteran will make his own arrangements for passport and visas necessary to enable him to proceed to the country where the institution is located. Passports are not necessary for veterans going to Canada, Newfoundland, or Cuba. They are required for all other countries. Passport applications may be made at the special passport agencies of the Department of State at the Federal building, San Francisco; or through the clerk of any Federal or State Court. Applications for visas for entrance to any foreign country should be made at the nearest consular offices of the countries involved.

WASHINGTON, June 2 (UP)—Chairman James M. Landis of the Civil Aeronautics Board said today that no evidence of safety violations has been discovered thus far in last week's tragic air crashes that killed 42 persons at LaGuardia Field, N. Y., and 53 more at Baltimore, Md.

U. S. WILL NOT AID HUNGARY

WASHINGTON, June 2 (UP)—Aroused by the Communist overthrow in Hungary, the United States suspended all further aid to that country today and moved to strengthen its own widening anti-Communist front by additional help to Italy and Iran.

DON'T THINK IT CAN'T HAPPEN TO YOU!

I was sitting in the upper floor of the Library when it happened. I went up to the librarian's desk to have it remedied.

"Name please?" she asked. I told her and she wrote it down in the book.

"Address please?" I told her and she wrote the information along side my name.

"And now your student body card?"

I looked through my wallet, finally finding the card. She took the card, noting the name on it was the same as the one I had given her. She then reached under the desk. What she pulled out looked strangely familiar. It was an ink pad and a sheet of paper for recording fingerprints.

"That is quite a bit of trouble to go for such a small thing," I said.

"Not too bad. We require the fingerprints of the right hand only." "Fine," I said, submitting to the ordeal.

"And now your birth certificate," she said.

"I am sorry," I said innocently, "but I left it at home."

"What, no birth certificate?" she gasped, her face becoming clouded.

"No birth certificate," I said.

"I am sorry," she said, "but you must have a birth certificate, it is the rule." Then her face brightened, looking like a can of beer taken out of ice water. "There is one downstairs, near the men's rest room," she said.

"What's the matter, are such things indecent?" I asked sarcastically.

Her face reddened then, it looked like a ripe tomato, and her air of affableness left her.

"I am sorry, but you must have all the proper credentials before I can allow you in the stacks to use the pencil sharpener. It is the rule."

"Forget it beautiful!" I said, "I'll use my fingernail to finish writing the report."

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

That Memorial Day program when we took down and stored away our star-filled flags, struck me as one of the milestones in the history of San Jose State College. It was easily the best college assembly I ever have attended. Every part was excellent, the speakers, the musicians, the uniformed veterans, the decorations, the audience.

The second program was even more impressive than the first. Mothers and dads and brothers and sisters, what memories those gold stars called forth, what a conviction of the brutality and futility of war.

In behalf of the college I want to thank all of you who took part. Cooperation like that is not an accident. It indicates that deep down within us there is a fine consciousness of what is worthwhile.

The Prexy's Desk

By "DOC" ARENDS

It's funny how so many students and outside people do their best to tear down the college—tear down what in many cases took years to build. Perhaps this willful campaign is not to be malicious or damaging, but nevertheless, it is premeditated. In a few of these cases, some damage has been done. Not damage in terms of the tangible, but certainly in the intangible.

NO NORMAL

For years, many factions in town have tried to lower the name of State in the eyes of the townspeople in general. Their campaign has been passive, yet the results can be counted. Many people of San Jose, and many students, have not tried to grow with the college. A couple of months ago someone called the Chamber of Commerce. When the call was referred to another line, the explanatory remark was this, "Someone from the Teacher's college wishes to talk with you." Now, certainly, that was not meant to be malicious, but it does show a certain lack of interest in the growth and development of this college—especially since we ceased being a "Teacher's college" in 1935.

INSTIGATORS

Recently, a few letters have been floating around the campus from a former student who is now a clerk in the State Legislature. This man, Cecil Dumbalion, who now signs his name Cecile D. DeMille, is trying to stir up a little agitation between the students and a popular faculty member on the grounds that he is a left-winger, a red, a Communist. This too is damaging and tearing down the name of State. It is damaging our cause of making this not one of the best, but THE best.

Gang, don't be taken in with this rabble-rousing. Stand on your own two feet—judge and evaluate the facts for yourself. Draw your own conclusions. Think before you act. Learn the facts. And, just as important, build up YOUR school. Don't be a party to tearing it down. It's a great place.

FORMER STUDENT EXPERIENCES TEXAS CITY BLAST

Mrs. Dorothea (Newhouse) Powell, class of 1940, related her experience in the Texas City explosion in a recent letter to Miss Doris Robinson, director of the Placement office. Mrs. Powell lives in Texas City with her husband, a chemical engineer.

Her letter states, in part: "I haven't done much straight thinking since April 16.

"We were very fortunate to have come out of the explosion so well. Bob (her husband) is a chemical engineer for Monsanto Chemical Co., so he was in the 'big middle' of it all. He escaped with minor injuries, but most of our friends did not fare as well. Out of 17 young production engineers, he and one other fellow got out alive—and this other boy's back is broken in two places.

"These young men and their wives formed our very closest friendships—and it is heartbreaking to see the grief of these girls.

"Most of us working for Monsanto come from all over the United States—so with these girls going home to their respective states, Texas City seems a forlorn place.

"We had always set California as our goal for 1948—but now with Bob so vital to the rebuilding, I guess it will just be a vacation to California in 1948—and making our home there delayed a little longer.

"I never really appreciated how nice a three months' vacation was, until now we try to figure how to get the most of our two weeks."

Mrs. Powell, a general elementary major while attending State, closes with the remark "Give the walls of San Jose State a pat for me."

Arts degree at Stanford.

Mrs. R. G. Huck, the former Ruth Kendall, is working in the Registrar's office at San Jose at the present time.

All members of the "30" Club are requested to be present at today's meeting to be held at 3:30 in Room 11. Officers will be elected for the first half of next year, and the new constitution will be ratified.

"We need as many members as can possibly attend to make up the necessary two-thirds quorum," states Virginia Mahon, president. "It is also important for members who are going to the beach party to attend, as plans for the affair will be discussed."

The beach party will be held Saturday, June 7, at China Beach, south of Capitola. Beginning about noon, the party will continue through the afternoon and evening, with swimming, a picnic supper, and a bonfire scheduled.

Jay Sevy is handling arrangements and announces that those wishing to attend should pay him before Wednesday. The cost will be $1 per person, and members will be allowed to bring guests for the same price.

LARGE NUMBER 'HIT THE BEACH'

The reason no estimate is available is that various parties of students kept coming and going all day long. Those present ate their way through gallons of potato salad, potato chips, and roasted their main course, or ate their hot dogs raw.

Pickles and mustard and a sound truck which played records most of the afternoon at Cowles' beach garnished the affair. The records later were used for a street dance Sunday night.

Lou Jano furnished the truck power and served as record master, assisted by Winifred Bennet and Mel Hulse.

"We must have had enough food," states Jano, "because we even had some left over after Jack Faulk, Steve O'Meara, Junior Morgan, and Bob Hagen got through eating."

According to Jano, there must have been at least 250 or 300 State students in attendance at the affair. The sun shone for three, hours, from noon until 3 p.m.

Thinclads Invade Edwards Field Saturday for NPAA Track Meet

After almost a week's rest, Coach Bud Winter will have his trackmen working hard on the cinderpaths the remainder of this week in preparation for their invasion of Edwards field, Saturday, for the Northern Pacific Athletic association track and field meet.

Coach Winter will enter a full team in the meet in hopes of bringing home a team title as well as several individual crowns. To off set the power usually shown by the Olympic club in such events as the hammer throw, 10000 meter run, 56 lb. weight toss, and the heel and toe race, Coach Winter plans to enter men in these events.

WEIGHTMEN

Woody Linn and Tom Higgins will enter the hammer throw and 56 lb. weight throw. Merle Knox will compete in the 10000 meter run. Knox rates a good chance here as the farther the distance the better for the small distance man as shown by his earlier performances this year in San Francisco.

It will be a busy weekend for Thelmo Knowles and Gene Haynes. The two will fly south Friday to participate in the Compton Invitational and then will return Saturday for the PAA. Knowles will run the 800 meter race and Haynes will start in the 1500 meter run at Compton.

One of the closest races of the day will be in the 100 yard dash where Don Smalley will again run up against California's Don Anderson. Twice Smalley has been nipped by Anderson and the first time it was so close the judges debated several minutes before handing down a decision.

P.E. CLUB TO PICNIC

Women's Physical Education and Recreation majors club will have a picnic this afternoon at Roosevelt Junior high school beginning at 5:30.

Swimming, tennis, and softball will be the featured sports and 45 cents per person will be charged for food, according to Co-chairmen Carol Nystuen and Elenor Cain. Swimming is an additional 15 cents.

SHEPPERD WINS GOLF PLAYOFF

Ruskin Shepperd won the number six position on the NCAA-bound Spartan golf team over the week-end by defeating Howard Verutti one up in the finals of their 72-hole play-off match, Coach Bill Hubbard announced today.

Shepperd will join a quintet of Spartan golfers including Eli Barteau, Jr., Bobby Harris, Morgan Fottrell, Ross Smith and Warren MacCarty who are leaving June 17 for the national tourney in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

This is the first time in the history of San Jose State college that a full athletic team has been entered in national competition. According to Coach Hubbard, $400 of the team's expenses were furnished by the student body, and the rest by the San Jose Boosters club.

Hubbard expects some of the stiffest competition to come from the Stanford Indians who are currently holding the NCAA crown. Last week, the Indians crept by UCLA to take the Pacific Coast conference title. Stanford's Bob Cardinal lost the PCI individual crown to the Bruin number one man in the play-offs.

Matmen Get Awards

Winners of the eighth annual Robert Roumasset wrestling award and the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate medals probably will be announced this week, according to Coach Ted Mumby.

The Roumasset medals were presented to the college by his parents in his memory. They are given to the outstanding wrestler on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the college.

TRACK NOTICE

The annual ice cream feed for all trackmen will be held at Coach Winter's tonight at 7:30. All spikesters and their wives are invited. Coach Winter's address is 1015 Camino Ricardo.

Sport Reminisces Show Spartans Had Impressive Football Season

Ed's Note: This is the first in a series of articles summarizing the 1946-1947 sports activities at San Jose State College.

By WILBUR AGEE

As the 1946-1947 sports season rapidly comes to a conclusion on the San Jose State college campus it is time to take stock of our efforts on the sports front and see just what the Spartan athletes have accomplished.

Under Coach Bill Hubbard, who just returned to school to assume duties as head coach this year, the Spartan grid machine turned in a very impressive record during the fall quarter climaxing their achievements with a 20-0 win over Utah State in the Fresno Raisin Bowl.

San Jose showed well in its opening game when they trounced Willamette 44-6. However, the following weekend the Spartans encountered one of the toughest opponents in the southwest when they tackled the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys in Abeline and were turned back by a 34-7 score.

The Spartans came back, however, five days later and held the highly touted Hawaiian All-Stars to a 19-19 tie. The Hawaiians were led by Wallace Yonamine, who only recently signed a football contract with the San Francisco 49'ers.

The next week found the Spartans in Moscow, Idaho, where they handed the University of Idaho Vandals a 26-14 pasting. The following week the Spartans were back in San Jose to face Brigham Young University. Again San Jose found the goal line virtually unprotected and pushed across two touchdowns to win by a 14-0 score.

In their first game in the OCAA conference, which was renewed after a three-year layoff, San Jose defeated Santa Barbara by a 20-0 score on the Gaucha's home field. The following Friday night San Jose invaded Stockton and piled up 32 points against Coach

Amos Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific Tigers shutting the latter out without a point.

San Jose ran into trouble in San Diego the following Friday night in the form of a fighting Aztec grid machine and it was not until the third quarter that the Spartans were able to score the lone touchdown. Final score, 6-0.

Back in San Jose, the Spartans wound up their conference play by defeating the Fresno Bulldogs 14-2 the following weekend in the rain and mud and capturing the OCAA football crown.

The following Friday the Spartans closed their regular season with a 26-19 win over Portland university. Final total for the season was ten victories against one loss and one tie. Coach Bill Hubbards gridders won their last nine games.

Coach But Winter coached a green but game Spartan Jayvee football team to a successful season. The Sparta babes defeated the Monterey American Legion eleven 18-0, lost to the Santa Cruz Seahawks 19-7, trounced Fort Ord 50-6, lost a close decision to Fresno State college 13-12, defeated the Merchant Marine squad 32-13, and closed the season with a 18-6 win over the University of San Francisco.
